GOULBURN

Planning has commenced in Goulburn to commemorate the centenary of the Australian Motorcycle Grand Prix which occurred on 23 June 1924. The celebration will be held exactly 100 years on. The highlight of the celebration will be an escorted, re-enactment ride along the original 80-kilometre course.

The centenary festivities will also include a parade of classic motorcycles through the main street of Goulburn, classic racing events at Wakefield Park Raceway, motocross events at the Goulburn Motorcycle Club, an exhibit of classic and vintage bikes, demonstration rides, live music at local venues and an official dinner. The event promises to be a celebration of heritage, and camaraderie which will pay homage to the pioneers of Australian motorcycle racing while creating memories for generations to come.
